

MCA Circular on e-filing to avoid last minute rush

As you are aware the last date for filing of your company's annual return & balance sheet for the current year (2010-11) is round the corner. These documents have to be filed in electronic form online into the MCA21 portal. Since the size of each document is huge (2MB or more), the last minute rush creates a congestion in the system which is then unable to process pending requests fast. To avoid such congestion in the system MCA has issued a circular and suggested preferable dates on the basis of first Alphabet of the Companies name. Circular issued by is as follows:-
